

Reciprocal Agreements

The Salt Creek Rural Park District has a reciprocal agreement with Arlington Heights, Rolling Meadows and Palatine Park Districts. Since the Salt Creek Rural Park District does not offer swimming programs, cultural arts programs, ice skating, gymnastics and a selection of other programs, we have sought out other districts to supplement our recreation offerings to you.

Residents of the Salt Creek Park District may use their resident I.D. cards to gain access to different activities at the Arlington Heights, Palatine and Rolling Meadows Park Districts. In order to take advantage of these reciprocal agreements, Salt Creek residents must obtain a Salt Creek Park District I.D. for $2 at the Twin Lakes Recreation Area.

GYMNASTICS

Qualified instructors will be coaching children in the Rolling Meadows state of the art gymnastics facility located in the Sports Complex. Gym clothing or leotards and tights should be worn to class. All classes meet one hour for seven weeks. Note: The gymnastics program at Rolling Meadows Park District is offered for Salt Creek Rural Park District residents only.

SWIMMING POOLS

There are a variety of swimming programs offered through Rolling Meadows Park District. Swim lessons are available June through August. Pool passes can be purchased at the Sports Complex, 3900 Owl Drive, Rolling Meadows. For more information on specific classes, call Rolling Meadows Park District at 847-818-3200.

ICE ARENAS

The two ice arenas offers a variety of programs: ice skating lessons for participants of all ages, open skate, competition skating, ice shows, figure skating, ice hockey and much more. The Rolling Meadows Sports Complex is located at 3900 Owl Drive in Rolling Meadows. For more information call 847-818-3210. West Meadows is located at 3939 Winnetka, also in Rolling Meadows. Call 847-398-2700 for further information.
