

NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT CAMP

June 24 - July 1, 2010

OBJECTIVES

To re-evaluate those officials who have attended a Regional Development Camp and have improved their skills. It is also used as a second exposure for an official who has improved his skills a number of years after his involvement in a Regional Camp. To instruct, in depth, the skills necessary to continued advancement towards higher levels of officiating.

CRITERIA FOR ATTENDANCE AT CAMP (The applicant must:)

- * Be a good hockey citizen who has contributed to a positive hockey environment at the local level.
- * Be a USA Hockey Completely Registered Official (Level 3 or 4).
- * Have attended a previous Regional Development Camp (Recommended)
- * Have displayed drastic skills improvement on the local level.
- * Be an American citizen or a landed immigrant.
- * Between 20 and 29 years of age (Recommended).
- * Be an excellent skater.
- * Be proficient at working competitive levels of hockey.
- * Have the desire to improve their personal skills in order to achieve higher levels of officiating.
- * Be mature enough to be able to learn advanced techniques of officiating and put them into proper perspective relative to amateur hockey games.
- * Be willing to take learned information back to his local area and assist others with this information

APPLICATION

The National Officials Camp will be attended by invitation only.

Applications MUST be submitted through District Referees-in-Chief ONLY.

March 26, 2010 - DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS TO YOUR DISTRICT REFEREE-IN-CHIEF.

Late applications, FAX copies or those not submitted through the District Referee-in-Chief will not be accepted.

SELECTION PROCESS

Applications will be reviewed and participants selected by the USA Hockey Officiating Program Staff with input from the USA Hockey Referee-in-Chief, District Referees-in-Chief, Instructors and Local Supervisors of Officials. Participants will be selected on the basis of their hockey officiating ability, personal character, conduct, contribution to the hockey community, school record and ambitions.

COSTS

A $90 administrative fee, per participant, will be billed to each participant upon acceptance. This fee will be due in the office prior to final confirmation. The fee is non-refundable to all selected participants. All transportation to the camp site is to be supplied and paid for by the participant. USA Hockey will supply and pay for room, board, and instructors fees.

INSTRUCTORS

Instructors will be selected from the top American officials who are currently working in the National Hockey League, American Hockey League, ECHL, NCAA Division I and IIHF World Championships. Other top instructors within the USA Hockey Officiating Education Program, including District Referees-in-Chief and Local Supervisors of Officials will also be considered.
