

TESTIMONIALS

"I have known Vinny and Tim for 15 years and they do a tremendous job of working with young men. They are both very knowledgeable baseball people who teach the game the right way, and also incorporate life's lessons, as well." - Lamar HS Head Baseball Coach, Mike McGilvray (2000 5A State Championship-The Woodlands)

"The Heat organization does a great job with teaching the fundamentals of the game. More importantly, they subject my players to the many intricacies the game has to offer. Our guys who have played for Tim and Vinny in the summers have thoroughly enjoyed their chance to play with, and against, some of the best players in the nation." - Head Baseball Coach, Jason Washburn, College Park HS

"The Houston Heat helped me tremendously with setting a foundation for the game of baseball. Vinny aided in teaching me fundamentals that led to the success I've had thus far in my baseball career. Tim and Vinny do a great job of putting players in the position to get the most out of their abilities, and also have a great relationship with all their players on and off the field. They take a valued interest in you as a player and a person, and I believe that's important when it comes to coaching/mentoring kids. In my opinion, preparing to perform against the highest level of competition in the world started with the Houston Heat organization when I was 15 years old, and I'm very appreciative of the opportunity to have been involved with Coach Sinisi and Coach Price's efforts to help take my game to the highest level." - Cincinnati Reds Right Fielder, Jay Bruce

"I have known Vinny for almost 15 years. He has coached numerous players that have gone on to play college and professional baseball. He knows baseball, he loves it, and he makes it more fun than any coach out there." - David Murphy, Texas Rangers Outfielder

"The Houston Heat Baseball Organization helped me tremendously in my growth as a baseball player and as a person. Both Coach Sinisi and Coach Price have helped me develop as a player since high school. They know the game and keep it fun along the sometimes, challenging times. Their track record speaks for itself with all the great players that have come through the Houston Heat organization. Thanks for the great memories and numerous championships." – Danny Lehmann, AA Catcher with the Minnesota Twins, Rice University

"Thanks a lot Coach. I was determined to make him (Blake Whitter-Kingwood HS) take that Tech visit but seeing him hang with the Texas State coaches and then with their players and then when he practically begged to accept their offer I couldn't resist. They say you know when it's a fit and I could see it in his eyes. Never thought I'd be proud of him for turning down 1 or 2 or 3 Big 12 offers but I am. As I told Blake earlier, the Lord works in mysterious ways and Va Tech passing was a true blessing.

Couldn't have done it without you and Vinny. Phil is lucky to have you guys. I truly appreciate all you've done for Blake." - Ron Whitter, Blake's dad, on his commitment to Texas State University

"Playing for Coach Sinisi and Coach Price was the best thing that could have happened to my baseball career. These guys know more about the game than you can imagine, and they make it a priority to make every player better during their time on the Black. Getting the opportunity to play for these guys in Joplin, Atlanta, and everywhere in between made for the most exciting summer of baseball I've ever had. Not only are Vinny and Tim top notch on the field, they're first class off of it as well. The two of them do everything possible to make each kid a college player and judging by their track record, they are without a doubt the best in the business. Their passion for the game and getting kids scholarships is second to none, and winning ballgames seemed to become a habit throughout the summer. There's never a dull moment in that dugout, and I wouldn't hesitate to do it all over again. Playing for the Black is an opportunity that no high school player should miss out on." - Vanderbilt freshman starter, Connor Harrell

"My time spent in the Heat organization, with Coaches Sinisi and Price, definitely left memories with me. The program itself, prepares any ballplayer a chance to make it to the next level, whether it is college or pro ball. But the coaches here teach you things outside the box. They help you look beyond the game and into the future, which helps you off the field, as well. I owe much credit to everybody involved in the Houston Heat program, including my success in the classroom. Thanks for everything guys!" - Anthony Rendon, National Freshman of Year, All American, Rice University

"Playing with the Houston Heat under Head Coaches, Vinny Sinisi and Tim Price, was by far, the best baseball experience of my life, and one of the most memorable times of my life. Everyday, we came out and had fun and played great baseball. I learned more in just that one summer about baseball than I had learned in my entire baseball career. It was a great learning experience and a great summer with great players, great coaches, and great tournaments. Vinny and Price are the most down to earth guys you will ever meet and, without a doubt, the best coaches you will ever play for. With those two, you learn something new constantly, and get a few good laughs in, as well. The playing style is perfect for any competitive baseball player. It's relaxed and calm, yet at the same time, you're out there to win and show what you're capable of. The best thing about Vinny and Price is that they actually care about your future. They are out there trying to get you to the next level and help you develop as a ball player. And that's all you can ask for from your coaches. Playing for Vinny and Price and the Houston Heat baseball organization was, by far, the best baseball experience of my life and if I could go back and do it all over again, I wouldn't hesitate to jump on the opportunity." - Barret Barnes, starting freshman, Texas Tech University

"Last summer was definitely one I will remember. I was able to learn a lot, not only about baseball, but also about life. A lot of summer coaches only care about fielding a team and trying to win games. Tim and Vinny really care about every one of their players. I owe them, both, so much for the opportunity I will have to play ball at Dartmouth next year. Thanks! By the way if anyone has a chance to take a 15 hour drive with them to Atlanta, do not miss out." - Dartmouth signee, Dustin Selzer, Houston Christian HS

"Coach Sinisi and Price have helped in my growth as a baseball player. At the rate I was going, most coaches would have given up on me. But they just kept throwing me out there and never lost faith. They kept telling me they knew I had it in me, and one day it all clicked after Price told me to stop throwing like a pansy, and some other stuff I can't really say here. I can't imagine trying to get into college without their help. This summer was an unforgettable experience and I had a lot of fun. Thanks for everything." - 6'7" pitcher and Villanova Signee, Patrick Young, College Park HS

"I owe a lot to Vinny and Tim for my experiences this summer. I learned alot about the game and different aspects you don't normally think about while you play. Also, they taught me so much about life through their own experiences. They honestly care about my future and worked towards getting me to the next level. I am thankful for their help getting me my scholarship to Texarkana Junior College. Thanks for everything!" - Anthony Azar, Texarcana Junior College Signee, The Woodlands HS

"Baseball has been my passion since I was a young boy, and the countless hours spent over the years has definitely paid off. I feel I am extremely blessed and honored to be where I am in my baseball career, and the Houston Heat had a large part to do with that. My baseball knowledge and skill jump tremendously during my years with the Heat. More importantly, I created a number of great relationships that continue today. Between the very talented guys on my team, and one of the most humorous coaching staffs, my summers with the Heat were amazing. Coach Sinisi and Coach Price really helped me take that extra step that I needed to excel as a senior in high school and in my college career, as well. I truly believe I would not be where I am today if I had not accepted the invitation to play with the Heat." - Mike Ojala, 4-year starting pitcher, Rice University

"Coach Sinisi and Coach Price were very helpful in helping me mature as a ballplayer. Last summer I learned more about baseball each day I stepped on the field. It was definitely a memorable experience. Thanks for everything!" - Rice Signee, Keenan Cook, College Park HS

"I remember the first practice I had with the Houston Heat and Coach Sinisi, asking how many of us knew the rules of baseball. Coach Sinisi asked how many of us had actually sat down and read the rule book . Of course, none of us had. But what he was trying to get across was, in order to be good at baseball, you have to master the mental side of the game, and all the physical stuff will come. I feel that making their team changed my career in baseball because I went to a smaller high school (Huffman) that rarely got any looks and Coach Sinisi and Coach Price actively helped me get recruited by a D1 team. I believe they are the best coaches out there and would recommend them to anyone who wants their son to learn a ton about baseball, but even more about how to be a man outside of baseball. Thanks for everything Vinny and Tim." – Naval Academy Pitcher, Zack Sipe

"We are all so proud that Alex has been selected to go to Columbia. But, he didn't do it alone....He had lots of help and encouragement. Tim, you and Vinny have played a major part in his journey. All the miles on the road and all the nights in hotels have paid off for Alex. The most exciting part is that Alex is going to get a great education from a college that really wants him. Thank you for everything! The impact that you both have made on my son (yes, a positive impact) is immeasurable. I will always be grateful to the Houston Heat and to the both of you for a memorable summer." - Team Mom '08, Judith Black

"The Houston Heat organization is an excellent program for teenage athletes seeking to play beyond high school baseball. Playing under Vinny and Tim helped me become a better, more knowledgeable and confident baseball player. This was the time period of my life where my baseball career took off. They did a great job of teaching me the game from a more professional perspective and helped make me confident at the highest levels. These two coaches really do a good job of bringing out the passion of the game in young athletes striving to move forward in the game. My time spent with Vinny and Tim was crucial as they helped get my name on the map. The trips were classic and I still compete with and against many of the teammates I had on the Heat. Their continued support helps drive my career still, today. My experience with Vinny, Tim, and the rest of the Heat Organization will always be remembered as the starting point where my career really took off. Thanks for everything!" - Texas Christian University Ace, Steven Maxwell

"Playing under Coaches Vinny Sinisi and Tim Price was without a doubt the best baseball experience I have had in my career. I learned more about baseball during a single summer than I had prior to their coaching. Both coaches made the game enjoyable while making me a better ball player. They also gave me opportunities that I would not have been exposed to anywhere else. Playing for Sinisi and Price gave me the coaching and the opportunities to take it to the next level." - Freshman starter, Chase McDowell, Rice University

"Playing with the Heat black under Sinisi and Price was definitely one of the best baseball experiences of my life. Both of these guys taught me life long lessons on and off the field. I owe much of my success to Coach Sinisi and Coach Price for opening up my eyes to the future I have in baseball. I have learned many things under their wing such as, play the game hard, play the game the right way, and most importantly, work hard every day on and off the field. I appreciate everything they have done for me, I wouldn't be here without them."

- Starting Freshman RHP, Michael Reed, LSU (first start 3-9-10)

"My experience playing with Coach Price and Sinisi was definitely memorable. With all the years they have put into teaching baseball, I never failed to learn something new every day. These are two coaches that work their hearts out to see kids succeed, not only with baseball, but with life, as well. Never have I thought about the mental part of the game more. Because of their respected past, the Heat Black attracts a lot of attention from scouts and college coaches. I felt I had a chance to prove myself with every game I played. In addition to that, both of these coaches could get any college to come watch me play if I told them that's where I would like to play. Along with that, we always played good quality teams and had opportunities to play in big tournaments. I can't thank them enough for the hard work they put into helping my teammates and me, and for helping me get my TCU scholarship. Win or lose, I never stopped having fun or failed to laugh with these guys. Thanks for everything." - Nick Frey, TCU signee, The Woodlands HS

"I can't say enough about my experience last summer as a member of the Houston Heat Black. When I made a commitment to play for the Heat, I was unaware that I would learn so many important life lessons from Coach Price and Coach Sinisi, in addition to becoming a better baseball player. The coaches for the Heat truly care about each player and make a concerted effort to get to know each player on a personal level. More importantly, both coaches bring a level of class on and off the field that is second to none. And as a player for the Heat Black, Coach Price and Coach Sinisi make every possible effort for college teams to become familiar with each player, and go out of their way to promote them to college programs that the players are interested in. I will never forget the experience I had while playing for the Heat Black last summer, and I would not hesitate to play again for Coach Price and Coach Sinisi." - Andrew Mitchell, TCU signee
