Referees

We always welcome qualified referees (USSF Certified). Interested referee's should contact the Tournament Director at calong5460@gmail.com.

Field Marshals

TNFC Volunteers will act as field marshalls throughout the weekend. They are there not only to check-in players before game time, but also to help you and your team with information regarding most any tournament matter. They will be equipped with walkie-talkies and can access on-site medical staff in case of an emergency. Field Marshalls along with the Game Officials do have the authority to insure a safe environment for both players and spectators if need be. Please help them in this effort by being early to the field. Please have your player cards for field marshall inspection 30 minutes prior to each game.

Pets

No pets are allowed at ANY of the soccer facilities. Field Marshalls will enforce this rule.

Tents

NO team tents are permitted on the sidelines or on the premises of any of the complexes.

Facilities, Maps, and Directions

Detailed maps and directions are available on the website.

Admission

The tournament will charge $5/car for a weekend pass at the main soccer facility. Please allow a few minutes extra when entering the main complex parking area.

Recommended Hotels

TNFC will have a hotel program. Please access information from the main tournament page.

Tournament T-shirts

Tournament t-shirts will be available. You may order shirts online. See tournament webpage for details.

Concessions and Vendors

Concessions and soccer related vendors and booths will be available at the tournament for your convenience and enjoyment.

We look forward to seeing you in September. For tournament updates, be sure to check back to the website..

Thanks again,

Craig Long
