Ring Neck Braun Ale

Ring Neck Braun Ale is the initial offering in the Brau Single Batch Series of beers. A perfect autumn ale, this big double nut brown ale is dry and fruity, yet surprisingly drinkable. Nutty flavor is derived from both biscuit malt and toasted oats. A hint of raspberry and classic British hops round out this mild and complex brown ale.

Sheephead Ale

This beer is named after our favorite family pastime, sheep head. Hops dominate with a balance of spicy herbal hops up front followed by the citrus and grass of American hops. Malt is not forgotten by means of heavily toasted and chocolate malt. This is a great beer for a long winter session of card playing with family.

Tyranena Brewing Company

Lake Mills, Wisconsin

Legend tells of a foreign tribe that built a series of stone structures and effigy mounds on the edge of a lake they called Tyranena. Today, these structures lie preserved deep under the waters of Rock Lake. No one knows for sure who built them, the purposes they served, how and why they are submerged, or even the meaning of the word Tyranena.

John Henry Oak Aged Imperial Stout

John Henry is an imperial stout beer that has been bourbon oak aged. This beer is brewed with three different dark roasted malts giving roasted to chocolate flavors and a dark appearance. Oats are also added for additional body and flavor. Combined with the pale malt and caramel malt the grain bill tops 12,000 lbs of barley. Cascade, Willamette, and Alsace Hops are the three hops added for a balanced hop bitterness and aroma. After fermentation has been completed with our top fermenting ale yeast, conditioning starts and the fun begins. We condition with bourbon oak and let the aging process take over. Hints of bourbon and vanilla from the oak come through in the aroma and flavor. This is a big beer that you can't pass up.

Old Johnnie Ale

In 1857 monks arrived from Germany with old world recipes for brewing beer. Our Olde Johnnie Ale is brewed from these old world recipes capturing the rich rull flavor and great taste.

Moonlight Ale

This beer is a combination of two beers, one being a porter and the other a bock. The porter is brewed with chocolate malt and caramelized barley. These specialty malts add to its flavor and dark appearance. The bock is lighter in color brewed with some caramelized barley and is then delicately hopped for a smooth finish. The blend of these two brews is our version of a black & tan.

Honey Almond Weiss

The combination of unfiltered wheat and yeast result in a cloudy, frothy, and refreshing beer. The yeast used in this beer is a lager and ferments at the bottom. It ferments at lower temperatures and adds a clean crisp flavor. The yeast is left in suspension for additional bottle conditioning. A hint of almond is added for flavor. Honey is also added from Cannon Falls, Minnesota for a balanced sweetness.

Summit Brewing

St. Paul, Minnesota

Summit Extra Pale Ale

Summits first-born child and flagship beer since 1986. Extra Pale Ale has a pronounced hop flavor and a light bronze color

Summit Pilsener

Bohemian style with wide appeal. With a perfect balance and a golden hue, it blends well with just about everything

Summit Horizon Red Ale

A brand new, year-round beer called Horizon Red Ale. Think aroma. Think citrus. Think floral. Think exceptional American hops balanced with choice malts.

Summit Hefe Weizen

Easier to drink than to pronounce (hay-fa-vite-zen) means "wheat beer with yeast". Originally brewed in Bavaria, it's now a traditional brew in Europe thanks to its light, elegant taste. After being filtered, a bit of German brewer's yeast is left behind to keep it fresh. This also gives it a cloudy appearance.

India Pale Ale

First brewed with an extra dose of hops to help it survive the long journey from England to beer lovers in India, India Pale Ale is now brewed just for the pleasure of its distinctive hoppy flavor.

Great Northern Ported

Porter was once the most popular beer in the British Empire. One taste of this dark, yet surprisingly light-bodied beer's malty character and sweet finish will have you singing "God Save The Queen."

Lake Superior Brewing Co.

Duluth, Minnesota

Special Ale

Kayak Kolsch

Refreshing German ale style originating in Cologne. Five malts for complexity without being overbearing and lightly hopped. World Beer Championships Silver Medal.

Mejabi Red

Substantial dark caramel malt creates a deep ruby beer with lots of heft. Maltiness is offset by three hop varieties. World Beer Championships Silver Medal

Sir Duluth Oatmeal Stout

Nearly coal black with coffee overtones up front and chocolate undertones following combined with oat smoothness makes this beer World Beer Championships Gold Medal beer.

Split Rock Bock (late winter/spring) seasonal

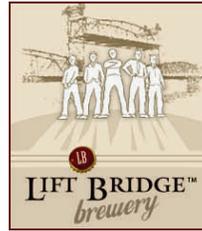

Some say the locals in Einbeck, Germany, used to brew bock beer to ward off the stubborn winter (after all, bock is the German word for "goat" and the style is brewed under the sign of Capricorn). Others say it's simply what came out of the brewery as a result of spring cleaning. We craft our hearty, chocolate-inflected Split Rock Bock to keep Northerners warm at the annual Fitgers Bock Fest each March. You see, March is a long way from spring in Duluth, so we use five malts to give it a rich body and an extra hind-leg kick - in case you find yourself far from the bonfire.

5.5% ABV - Well balanced amber pale ale accentuated by multiple additions of floral Cascade hops and our unique introduction of grapefruit zest to compliment the citrus notes of the hops. Enjoy!

Belgian Biscotti

7.0% ABV - This unique ale was inspired by traditional biscotti. A complex array of malts, clover honey, star anise, grains of paradise, and Belgian yeast produces an interesting culinary experience. Served from cask.

St. Croix Brewing Company

St. Paul, Minnesota

Maple Ale

Truly a one-of-a-kind beer that achieves the characteristics of both an ale and a lager, with a hint of maple in a slightly hoppy finish. It's brewed in a classic American West style from the 1800s that employs cold-fermenting lager yeast at warmer ale-fermenting temperatures. After fermentation, the beer is aged cold for several weeks. This hybrid process gives the beer the fruity, estery flavors of an ale and the smoothness of a lager. Pale American two-row, crystal and Carapils malts are balanced with generous amounts of Northern Brewer and Cascade bittering hops. Pure Wisconsin maple syrup is added in the brew kettle, and whole Czechoslovakian Saaz hops are used for dry-hopping after fermentation for added hop aroma.

St. Croix Cream Stout

This full-bodied dark brew was inspired by the billows of smoke rising from the steam-boats of yesteryear on the St. Croix River. A style dating back to the founding of America, this brew is made with six varieties of malt and a combination of American and British Hops to balance the big malty flavor. Smooth, rich, chocolate malts accented with generous portions of roasted barley and a touch of hearty oatmeal make for a brew to enjoy around the fire with family and friends. Inspire conversation or moments of introspection. St. Croix Cream Stout is truly an American Original.

St. Croix Cream Ale

An American Original beer style made popular by American breweries in the 1800's. St. Croix Cream Ale is golden ale made with three barley malts which produce a creamy but light mouthfeel. Some beer authorities contend that the Cream Ale style is a hybrid of ale and lager. While this is technically not the case, many find that the flavor profile and drinkability of St. Croix Cream Ale brings to mind a fine lager while maintaining the complex layers of flavor that beer drinkers seek in a craft-brewed ale. Truly an American Original.

Surly Brewing Company

Brooklyn Center, Minnesota

Bender

Here's what happens when substance meets smooth. This oatmeal brown ale defies traditional categories. Bender begins crisp and lightly hoppy, complemented by the velvety sleekness oats deliver. Belgian and British malts usher in cascades of cocoa, coffee, caramel and hints of vanilla and cream. An easy-drinking ale with many layers of satisfaction.

Furious

A tempest on the tongue, or a moment of pure hop bliss? Brewed with a dazzling blend of American hops and Scottish malt, this crimson-hued ale delivers waves of citrus, pine and caramel-toffee. For those who favor flavor, Furious has the hop-fire your taste buds have been screeching for.

Coffee Bender

Coffee Bender refreshes like an iced-coffee, is aromatic as a bag of whole beans as satisfies like your favorite beer. Utilizing the latest technology, the Surly brew team has developed a cold extraction process that results in intense coffee aromatics and flavor bringing together two of our favorite beverages. Your only dilemma will be whether to finish your day or start it with a Coffee Bender.

CynicAle

Oh great, a fizzy yellow beer in a can, that's just what the craft beer world needs! CynicAle melds Old World ingredients in a new school style. French malted barley, English oats and Belgian yeast create honey & black pepper flavors. Lively Slovenian hops provide the floral, apricot and peach notes. Toss your doubts away, toss one back and enjoy!
