

- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-

Sioux City Explorers Professional Baseball Club
Member of the American Association

EXPLORERS EXTEND SPECIAL OFFER TO YOUTH ATHLETES OF SIOUXLAND

SIOUX CITY, IA – The Sioux City Explorers will open their 18th home season in Siouxland on May 21st, 2010 with game one of a scheduled 3 game home stand versus the Fighting Pheasants of Sioux Falls with a fireworks show to follow the 7:05 PM game.

Opening Night 2010 will also mark the first of (48) home games on the 2010 schedule that the Sioux City Explorers will allow ALL youth sport participants (little league, softball, hockey, soccer, flag football, gymnastics/dance, taekwondo etc...) 12 years of age and younger (male and female athletes) in the Siouxland area FREE admission when accompanied by a paying adult and by wearing their youth sports uniform!

It is that simple....regardless of the sport, for each adult ticket that is purchased in person at the box office one hour prior to game time, one youth athlete (male or female) 12 years of age or younger wearing their youth sports uniform will receive a FREE reserved seat game ticket for ANY home game during the 2010 season!! For example, (4) paid adults will allow (4) youth athletes FREE admission when wearing their youth sports uniform.

“We as an organization are committed to the youth in Siouxland and feel this is a great way we can continue to give back to our community, while also assuring during these tough economic times, the youth of our community have an opportunity to continue to enjoy America’s favorite pastime with our hometown Sioux City Explorers, comments General Manager, Shane Tritz.”

TO VIEW THE 2010 SCHEDULE, PLEASE VISIT WWW.XSBASEBALL.COM

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Shane M. Tritz
General Manager
Sioux City Explorers
(712) 277-WINS (9467)
tritz@xsbaseball.com

Ashley Schoenrock
Assistant General Manager
Sioux City Explorers
(712) 277-WINS (9467)
schoenrock@xsbaseball.com

X’S BASEBALL...CATCH THE EXCITEMENT