

Thank you for considering Brookings SD for your 2010-2011 hockey tournaments. Brookings is a Hockey friendly community just 15 miles west of the Minnesota border with almost 20,000 residents and the campus of SDSU. All tournament games are played at the Larson Ice Center, the state of the art home of the Brookings Rangers and SDSU Jackrabbits. It was built in 2002 with roomy seating capacity for over 3000 fans on two competition size sheets of ice with spacious heated viewing areas behind glass overlooking both rinks. A full concession stand serves a wide variety of food and beverages. 10 heated locker rooms with bathrooms and showers provide a comfortable environment for pregame preparations and between-period adjustments. Local accommodations include several national branded hotels with indoor pools, an assortment of restaurants for all tastes, and plenty of shopping.
