In addition to the above crimes which require disqualification, CGAA policy states that a person may be disqualified and prohibited from serving as an employee, independent contractor, or volunteer of CGAA and/or its organizations if:

1. The person has been convicted (including crimes the record of which has been expunged and pleas of "no contest") of any crime of violence against minors, or any crime which indicates the person may pose a risk to the safety and well-being of players under his/her direction of stewardship, including, but not limited to all felonies not described above, domestic assault, indecent exposure, and multiple conviction for a misdemeanor, operating a motor vehicle or watercraft while under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances within the past ten (10) years.
2. It is determined that he/she has been adjudged liable for civil penalties or damages involving sexual or physical abuse of children, is subject to any court order involving sexual abuse or physical abuse of a minor, including, but not limited to, domestic order for protection, has had his/her parental rights terminated for reasons involving sexual or physical abuse of children; or
3. CGAA or any of its affiliates comes into possession of verified information that he/she has a history with another organization (as a volunteer, employee or otherwise) of complaints of physical or sexual abuse of minors, resigned, been terminated or been asked to resign from a position, whether paid or unpaid, due to complaint(s) of sexual or physical abuse.

NOTICE

As the subject of a Child Protection Act background check, your rights include:

- To be informed that CGAA or organizations associated with CGAA will request this check for becoming or continuing as an employee or volunteer, and to determine whether you have been convicted of any of the above specified crimes;
- To be informed of the BCA's response and obtain a copy of the report from CGAA or organizations associated with CGAA;
- To obtain from the BCA any record that forms the basis for the report;
- To challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in the report;
- To be informed whether CGAA or organizations associated with CGAA have denied your application because of the BCA's response and not to be required to pay the cost of the background check.
