MHCA 2010-11 Hall of Fame

Bob Frerker (Rochester John Marshall)—A long-time youth hockey coach in Rochester, Frerker took over as the head coach at Rochester John Marshall following the retirement of Gene Sack. Frerker took the Rockets to back-to-back state tournament appearances in 1988 and 1989, leading them to the championship game in 1989.

George Karn (South St. Paul)—Following his graduation from Hamline in 1951, Karn played with the Minneapolis Millers and several amateur and semi-pro teams in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa. He coached at Cretin, South St. Paul and St. Agnes high schools along with a number of amateur teams. He also served as a referee in the Western Hockey League, Central Pro Hockey League, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association and the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, as well as in 14 Minnesota state high school hockey tournaments. He coaches South St. Paul to state tournament berths in 1953, 1954, 1955 and 1957 and is a member of Hamline University's Hall of Fame. Karn passed away in 2000.

Cliff Kauppi (Grand Rapids)—A members of the Grand Rapids Sports Hall of Fame and recipient of the "Founding Father" award from the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, Kauppi has earned the title of "Father of Grand Rapids Hockey." He began his lifelong career as a teacher and coach in 1936 and his career spanned six decades. He helped build numerous outdoor hockey rinks and was instrumental in establishing the IRA Civic Center in Grand Rapids. Following World War II, he founded and coached the high school team in Grand Rapids until 1955. He stepped away at that time to focus on the Mite and Squirt programs, believing that Grand Rapids' future was dependent upon the youth system. The seeds he planted grew into one of the most storied programs in the history of Minnesota high school hockey.

Ron Sellnow (Hopkins)—Sellnow has been one of the most tireless workers on behalf of Minnesota high school hockey. He has served the game at the high school level as a long-time assistant coach at Hopkins Lindberg, in Minnesota/USA Hockey Select programs and as an administrator for Section 6 and the state tournament. He was inducted into the Minnesota State High School League Hall of Fame earlier this year.

Lou Nanne (Edina)—A television analyst for the Minnesota State High School hockey tournament, Nanne's name is synonymous with the event. An 11-year NHL veteran and a former University of Minnesota standout, he served as coach and general manager of the Minnesota North Stars following his playing career. He has served as a great supporter of Minnesota High School hockey and its players.

MHCA Awards

Cliff Thompson Award—Jeff Whisler (Hill-Murray/Mahtomedi, Class of 2005)
