President's Note...

Greetings from the President—

Welcome to another exciting hockey season. For you returning hockey families, you know what is in store—lots of time at the arena, traveling to games, fundraising, some fun times at the away tournaments, and lots of work for your home tournament. It is a long season but a worthwhile endeavor and that is why we keep doing it year after year.

learn—where is that arena, what do I do for fundraising, what time is practice? Unfortunately there is no easy way to get acclimated. The best things to do are to check the website to keep current with the schedule, because unfortunately it does change, and to ask, either in person or in an email to me or to someone else., such as your team parent director or board member. Don't be shy—we were all newcomers at some time. Also check the message boards at the arena to stay up to date with current team news, like which hotel are we staying at or the next parent meeting. We will have periodic team meetings. Those are a good time to ask any questions.

ruined by over-zealous parents. Let the kids play and have fun and watch them improve from the beginning of the season until the end. March will come soon enough and then you will be wondering what you are going to do now after that four and a half month ritual of going to the arena for practices and games is finally over.

sible for doing the concession stand at its games. You might have to miss a game, so let's all take our turn and make sure the concession stand is properly staffed. Sign up sheets are by the concession stand door. Also, please do your part to keep the arena clean, whether the lobby or the arena itself. Teams have their designated arena cleaning weeks. Let's do our part to keep the facility looking right for our guests and friends.

I hope you have an enjoyable season. See you at the rink.

The most important thing to remember is to stay positive. A loss is not the end of the world. Stay upbeat. It makes the season go much smoother. Hockey is a wonderful sport for the kids and too often it is Finally, let's remember to do our concession stand hours and to keep the arena clean. The concession stand is an important part of the hockey club's income and the more it is open the better. It would be great if you could always watch your child play but each team is respon-
