

2011-12 Parents' Code of Conduct

The following Code of Conduct will be in effect for all WAHC-sponsored events, including games, practices, scrimmages, team meetings or any other WAHC events - on and off the ice.

- Maintain self-control and exemplify good sportsmanship, refraining from public criticism of officials, coaches, parents and players.
- Support your coaches. Remember that they have many players for whom they are responsible. Leave the "coaching" to the coach and keep negative comments to yourself.
- Don't compare your child with other players. Be honest with yourself about his/her capabilities.
- Compliment and encourage each player on the team.
- Teach your child to have fun and enjoy competition, help him/her to develop a healthy competitive attitude towards winning and losing.
- Arrange transportation to and from games, practices, scrimmages and tournaments.
- Remember that you, as well as your team, represent our community.
- Take care of your financial responsibilities to the WAHC promptly.
- Remember the locker room is for the players and coaches, respect team rules regarding access.
- Support the philosophies and policies of the WAHC.
- Attend board meetings - - provide feedback and build your understanding of the Club's activities.

The parent's rights:

- Having their player and themselves treated fairly and with respect.
- Have the player engaged in playing and practicing activities that increase his/her skill and enjoyment of the sport in a safe and healthy environment.
- Have the right to communicate directly with anyone associated with the Club (coaches, board, etc.) utilizing the following steps:
 - Allow a one-day "cooling off" period from the time of the incident before talking to the coach.
 - 2nd step will be informing the appropriate Level Director.
 - If not satisfactory, 3rd step is to contact the Coaches Director.
 - If not satisfactory, 4th step is to contact the Vice President of Administration.

The WAHC follows the attributes from the USA Hockey Zero Tolerance criteria used for players, parents and coaches on and off the ice. Examples of non-compliance of the Codes of Conduct are:

- Visually demonstrating any sign of dissatisfaction with any game or team official in a manner that openly embarrasses the Official and/or challenges his or her judgment.
- Use of profane, obscene, abusive or vulgar language, gestures, racial/ethnic slurs including inappropriate language, in a boisterous manner at ANYONE at ANY time, on the ice or anywhere in the rink before, during and after a game or practice. This also includes social media content such as email, text messaging or internet postings.
- Deliberate throwing of a stick, garbage or other equipment into the player's boxes, spectators viewing area, penalty box, or on-ice surface that in ANY manner creates a safety hazard.

- Taunting Players, Coaches, Officials or other spectators by mean of baiting, ridiculing, threatening physical violence, or physical violence. This includes physical or verbal “bullying” of other teammates/players in locker rooms.

I agree to follow these principles, as well as the WAHC Bluebook, as a parent/spectator of any WAHC or competitive team. Consistent action deviating from these values, or which disrupt the teams’ ability to function, other players’ ability to learn, the coaches’ ability to teach, representation of the WAHC in other cities will not be tolerated. I agree to the following process.

EVERY Club member is required to follow the code of conduct policies. If a parent violation does occur, procedures of 1st, 2nd and 3rd offenses are followed.
