- Meeting called to order
- Acceptance of minutes

President's report:

- Dan reminded that agility trainer Brock is interested in working with more of our players.
- He would reduce our rates if attendance increases
- Right now, he charges $5.00 per player for 45 minutes.
- Ryan will contact Brock about his schedule, Jensen will contact teams with available schedule from Brock, then it becomes first come, first served basis.
- Agility training would be done at CBFC fields.

DIRECTOR'S REPORTS

Community director:

- Jen reminded everyone to please send any information about teams, academies, camps, etc., to her for the next newsletter.

Activities director:

- Dates finalized for Halloween Havoc tournament at October 28, 29, & 30th.
- Hotels being finalized with Chris.
- Deb & Nancy will be doing the majority of the non-scheduling events.
- Nancy reported that the IWCC design department is hopefully working on HH t-shirt design as a class project, keeping cost minimal for us & benefiting the students.
- If not, the company they are looking into will design a different logo as well.
- Nancy asked if we would get any reimbursements for our indoor training sessions that were canceled due to bad weather.
- Hailey will contact Dea to clarify

Fields director:

- Duane mentioned that we are in need of coaches kits.
- The greatest needs are bibs, cones, flags, & net(s).
- Jensen will put together a coaches needs kit appropriate for each age group with the most cost effective business.
- Will include this as we finalize the budget & fee's.

STAFF REPORTS

DOC report:

- Picked up check for CB United
- Handed out try-out fliers
- Several parents from the academy showed interest in joining the Jr.'s program in the fall
- Jensen reported he would like to switch Jr.'s academy night in the fall so that all can attend
- He would like to see the club as a whole incorporate I soccer before try-outs, most of it is being done as individual teams right now.
- Working on maybe two U-11 teams after try-outs
- Discussed having a “Invite a Friend Night”, to interest more kids to play soccer for us.
- CBFC teams becoming more recognized & respected as very competitive & composed.
- Starting to receive registrations for camp & try-outs
- Discussed charging for try-out t-shirts to keep budget at zero cost.
- Jordan from IWCC has the gym available for us for registration on July 9th, at 10:00-1:00
- Jordan will speak for us, as well. (Ian is busy with ODP events).
- Contacted Jenny Wood from ISA about Alliance
- CB United IWCC coaches would like to have more representatives from both clubs. (CBFC, CBYSA), especially from CBYSA.
- Ryan mentioned that CBYSA is having many internal issues right now, & can't commit to outside projects as of now.
- Jensen will contact Gary Young, & IWCC to clarify if both would still be interested in continuing the CB United academy.
- Jensen will contact IWCC players, & CBYSA to see if any players or coaches are interested in doing a “D” course for licensing.
- Ryan & Jensen would like to see youth modules done, also.

- Jensen would like to have the try-out T's in black lettering, including the logo, so coaches can see & find the players easier during try-out sessions.
- Ryan inquired if our club was in need of a sideline/parent class.
- His own observations have shown that we do a decent job with sideline behavior
- Alliance would probably cover most of those issues for us.
- Jensen will e-mail try-out fliers to all team admins
