

Billericay Park

Billericay Park is named in honor of the Town of Fishers' sister city, Billerica, England. The park features eight professionally maintained natural grass fields. The fields are considered by many to be the best in the Midwest.

Other features that set Billerica apart from similar facilities include full service concessions, clean restrooms, safety nets over all seating areas to protect visitors from foul balls, five batting cages, a playground and a splash park.

The park is conveniently located in Fishers, Indiana, a town consistently recognized as a great place to live and close to many world-renowned attractions, such as, Connor Prairie, the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and the Indianapolis Children's Museum.
