

CODES OF CONDUCT
MEDICAL RELEASE

Player Name: _____

Birth Date: _____

“KIDS FIRST”

The East Sacramento Youth Soccer Club is about and for our children, with the goal of providing soccer in a fun and productive environment. Remember, the behavior of our parents, spectators, players, and coaches is a reflection of our Club and the East Sacramento community. To that end parents will abide by the following codes of conduct:

I AGREE TO:

1. Set an example of honor, dignity, and good sportsmanship at all times.
2. Encourage players to obey the Laws of the Game and participate in fair play.
3. Show respect for the opposing team, without whom there would be no game.
4. Be gracious when my child’s team wins; be graceful when my child’s team loses.
5. Emphasize fun, effort and improvement.
6. Attempt to relieve competitive pressure, not increase it.
7. Recognize the value and importance of coaches, who volunteer significant time and effort for the benefit of the players.
8. Respect the judgment and strategy of the coach.
9. Refrain from giving instructions from the touchline during matches or training. That’s the coach’s job.
10. Respect the integrity and authority of referees, especially youth referees.
11. Refrain from talking to the referee or publicly questioning a referee’s decision.
12. Refrain from talking to the opposing players, coaches, or parents, except to deliver a compliment.
13. Refrain from smoking or drinking alcohol in the vicinity of the field.
14. Relax and enjoy the game whether my child's team is winning or not.

Parents, please remember that the game belongs to the players. The spectators are guests. When your child’s coach is dismissed by the referee—for your behavior—THE GAME ENDS FOR EVERYONE.

I understand that failure to abide by this code of conduct may result in my dismissal from the game, from the field, or from the Club.
