CONCUSSION PROTOCOL — Every coach involved in school sport needs to complete the on-line concussion course "Concussion in Sports - What you need to know". There is no cost to register and you complete the free course through schoolcoach.ca. At the end of the course, each individual is provided with a printable certificate. The certificate number for each coach should be entered into the coach information section of each E-5.

An updated SHSAA Concussion Protocol including resources and information on how to access the on-line course can be found on the SHSAA Website at: <http://www.shsaa.ca/page/show/965463-shsaa-concussion-protocol-and-educational-materials>

An on-line concussion course designed for students is now available through <https://nfhslearn.com/>. This is not a mandatory course but the SHSAA is encouraging schools to provide this information to their student athletes so that concussion awareness and student safety becomes a maintained priority for our Association.

REMEMBRANCE DAY — Saturday, November 11, 2017. Remember to support the Legion Poppy Campaign. Recognizing the importance and significance of Remembrance Day as a time to honor our veterans, the SHSAA playoff schedules will not begin until 1:00pm on November 11. The Royal Canadian Legion, Saskatchewan Command has provided their cooperation, support and understanding to the importance of sport in our schools and communities as an example of the opportunities provided to youth through the service of our veterans.

November 2017

CIAAA National Conference — Regina — April 19-21, 2018 — In partnership with SIAAA, and with thanks to our major conference sponsor Sportfactor, we are excited to announce our 3rd Annual National Athletic Directors Conference, running April 19-21, 2018 at the Hotel Saskatchewan in Regina, Saskatchewan.

The CIAAA National Athletic Directors Conference offers a mixture of content, networking, and social opportunities combining for a dynamic, customizable, Athletic-Director centered professional development experience. The conference will feature 10 Leadership Training Program courses (including the launch of a brand new course), 17 exciting workshop topics to choose from, a conference banquet/keynote address, vendor trade show and an offsite social.

The pricing model for the conference has changed and now includes all meals throughout the conference and covers the cost of one Leadership Training Program course. We are also offering member discounts for anyone taking three or four LTP courses.

Be sure to check out the CIAAA's Certification Program as well as our partnership with Grace College to learn how your LTP courses can be used to earn professional designations and even an MSc in Athletic Administration. For more information:
