

Kaya Senaya

Brown Deer High School 2004 – 2008

High School Coach: Rob Green

WIAA State Meet Records Set (Division II)

2006 – 100m (12.02) & 200m (24.94)

2008 – 400m Relay (49.35 prelims)

WIAA State Meet Championships (Division II)

2005 – Champion 100m (12.81); 3rd 200m (26.26);
6th LJ (16' 7")

2006 – Champion 100m (12.02, State Meet Record), 200m (24.94, State Meet Record)

2007 – Champion 100m (12.41), 200m (25.21), 400m Relay (49.70); 4th LJ (17' 1 1/2")

WIAA Division II Team Champions (39 points)

2008 – Champion 400m Relay (49.42 finals [49.35,
State Meet Record Prelims]); 2nd 100m (12.18), LJ (17' 11 1/2"); 3rd 200m (25.70)

WIAA Division II Team Runner-up (38 points)

College: Southern Illinois University Edwardsville

Broke 8 year old SIUE school record, 60m (7.70)

2009 – 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships

Qualifier, 100m & 200m (Held at Albany State University)

2011 – 3rd place, 60m, Ohio Valley Indoor Conf

2012 – 3rd place, 100m and 5th place LJ (18' 1/2")

Ohio Valley Outdoor Conf

Accepted a full ride scholarship to the University of Wisconsin – Madison, transferred to Albany
State (where she competed in the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships), and finished her Undergraduate Degree in Sociology at SIU Edwardsville. While at SIUE, she competed under the leadership of Kareem Jackson, currently an assistant sprints coach at UW-Madison.

Post-Collegiate

Kaya pursued her Masters Degree in Criminal Justice at Lindenwood University – Belleville.

During those two years, she was the head sprints coach for women and men, and participated in the development of several athletes who competed at both the indoor and outdoor NAIA National Championships.

Other Accolades

2007 Outdoor Nationals USATF – 5th 100m (11.75; Fastest time by a WI female prep), 6th 200m (24.13)

2005 – 2008 Nine time WISTCA All-State Athlete
In outdoor track, Kaya was ranked 1st in both the 100m & 200m for WI Female Preps in 2006, 6th &
7th respectively in 2007 and 5th in the 100m in 2008. She was the fastest WI Female Prep indoors from 2006-08 in the 55, 60 and 200 meters.

Besides competing for Brown Deer, Kaya ran both AAU and USATF summer meets for the Milwaukee Spartans Track Club. She was a 4-year starter in basketball at Brown Deer, earned 2nd team all-conference honors and was named the 2007
Gatorade Athlete of the Year.

Inducted 2016

