

2021 RP Hockey Summer Camp

RP Hockey is owned and operated by Coach Rob Peters. Coach Peters grew up in Chicago where he played competitive hockey at the Elite club, national, and international level. Was selected to the USA Hockey U15 National Camp. He coached eight years at various levels for the New Jersey Rockets club organization, and three years ago brought his talents to Massachusetts.

Since being in Massachusetts, Coach Peters spent one high school season as the JV Head Coach for Scituate High School, and two seasons as an assistant coach for the Scituate Men's Varsity Hockey program. Last season he finished his first year as the head coach for the Whitman-Hanson Men's Varsity program.

RP Hockey has been responsible over the past three seasons administering, facilitating, and operating skills for the South Shore Seahawks Hockey program, as well as hosting spring/summer camps and year-round small group/one on one lessons.

RP hockey specializes in edge work, transitional skating with and without the puck, passing, shooting, stick handling, and game situational drills performed at a high rate of speed and intensity. With a max of 30 skaters, and 4 instructors, including himself, it will allow every player the opportunity to receive multiple repetitions with detailed coaching, while succeeding in reaching realistic expectations.
