

Law Enforcement Response to the Active Shooter (5 Days): Instructor Course Auburn, IN – September 17-21, 2018

Times: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM

This is a 45-hour instructor level course equipping law enforcement agencies in dealing with the increasing problem of active shooters in highly populated buildings such as schools, businesses and day-care centers.

A review of the most publicized and recent active shooter tragedies will be conducted. The importance of preparing for this type of dynamic, quickly changing, worse case scenario in a realistic training environment cannot be overemphasized. Because of this reality, this course includes extensive "Force on Force" drilling, live-fire drilling, and several field-training exercises with actors, pyrotechnics, and projectile training weapons designed to simulate a "real-world" scenario.

Prerequisites: Instructor Background or training preferable

This 5 – Day, 45 hr. course will cover the following:

- Presenting "Active Shooter" multi-media lecture
- Extensive solo, pair, & small element drilling – (Live Fire & "Force on Force")
- Proper Movements, effective use of Cover and Concealment
- "Prevailing vs. Survival" Mindset Issues
- O.O.D.A. Cycle
- Building & room clearing techniques for pairs & small elements
- Horizontal & vertical cornering techniques
- History, Demographics, & Profiles of past "Active Shooter" Incidents
- Protocols & techniques for responding to "Active Shooter" scenarios
- "Team Leading" & managing small elements in dynamic & stressful environments
- Functioning effectively under duress
- Administration of a "Force on Force" training program
- Administrative requirements for Program Delivery

This immersion increases the proficiency level of the participant so that he or she can more effectively deliver these proven concepts and protocols to their respective agencies and organizations.

This course is highly recommended to any law enforcement professional with an instructor background or for any law enforcement officer that may be asked to respond to a call for help during one of these types of incidents such as: patrol officers, school resource officers, detectives, or administrators.
